New Means Financial Planning provides financial planning services which may include advice on cash flow, debt management, risk management, college funding, retirement planning, estate planning, tax planning, asset allocation, and specific investment selection. These services are provided on an hourly or flat fee per project basis. Flat fees are based on the anticipated number of hours involved in the project. The engagement terminates upon the delivery of the plan or advice to client. No ongoing or automatic reviews are provided by New Means Financial Planning. Periodic financial check-ups and portfolio reviews are recommended, and it is the client's responsibility to initiate these reviews. Recommendations, advice, and primary client contact is provided by Sherrill J. St. Germain, MBA, President of the firm.

B. Describe below the nature and frequency of regular reports to clients on their accounts.

Portfolio "Snapshot" reports are provided when New Means Financial Planning is engaged to provide asset allocation or investment advice. The firm does not provide ongoing performance reporting. Clients will receive account statements directly from mutual fund companies and/or brokerage companies in which they hold investments. These statements are typically provided on a monthly or quarterly basis and as transactions occur.
